

6A Mak Wan Chi, Zoey

Where's Rebecca?

Last Saturday, Rebecca and her mom went to the park near their home.

Rebecca was very excited to play in the park. Rebecca was playing on the swing when Mrs. Chan, their neighbour, passed by. Mrs Chan said hello to them and started chatting with Rebecca's mom. They didn't pay much attention to Rebecca because they focused on talking and laughing so happily.

After Rebecca's mom finished chatting with Mrs Chan, she found that Rebecca was not on the swing. She was flustered and distressed and started looking for Rebecca in the park. She was so nervous and panicked since she didn't see Rebecca around. Suddenly, she heard someone say, 'Mom?' behind her. Rebecca just came out from the public washroom. Her mom was immediately relieved.

Finally, as Rebecca was safe, she knew her mom was very worried about her, so she promised this would not happen next time.

6B Liang Yi Feng, Eason

Bus Ride Experience

Have you ever forgotten to bring your Octopus card and coin purse when you wanted to take the bus? Let's look at this experience.

I watched TV at night. I was happy because the cartoon was amusing. Then, Mum asked me, 'Have you packed your schoolbag yet?'

'No, I forgot,' I said.

'You need to go to school tomorrow, so you should go to bed early. Pack your schoolbag quickly!' Mum shouted at me.

The next day, after Mum said goodbye to me, I ran very hurriedly because I knew I would be late for school if I didn't. On the bus, I was not able to find my Octopus card and coin purse, so I felt flustered and embarrassed.

In the end, since I had not brought my Octopus card and coin purse, I ran very quickly to school. Finally, I arrived at school, and I was not late.

This experience tells us we should check our belongings before going out.

6A Chan Ching Lam, Jacky

The Lost Bella

One day, when Bella and her grandma were going back home, Bella saw a playground. She wanted to play in the playground.

First, she asked Grandma, 'Can I play in the playground?'

'Okay, but you can just play for five minutes,' said Grandma.

Next, Bella immediately rushed into the playground. While she was playing on the swing, Grandma was chatting to her friend.

After that, Grandma was flustered because she couldn't find Bella anywhere.

Then, when Grandma was dialing 999 for help, she suddenly saw the bushes move. She stopped dialing and rushed to the bushes.

At last, Grandma heard Bella's crying. Grandma asked, 'Where are you?'

'I'm here,' Bella waved at Grandma. Grandma rushed over to her and hugged her. Grandma saw Bella crying her eyes out. Bella felt distressed and sobbed, 'My leg was hurt by branches. Am I going to die?'

'Relax, you're fine. Let's cleanse the wound first,' Grandma comforted Bella.

In the end, everything became normal again. However, Bella won't go anywhere without Grandma.

6A Lau Sze Yin, Priscilla

Missing daughter

Have you ever missed something important by being careless? It was a Saturday morning, and May took her daughter, Macy, to the park. Macy exclaimed, 'Mom, I want to play on the swing, can I?' May was helpless to refuse, so she let Macy play.

After a few minutes of playing with Macy, her neighbour, Mrs Wong, saw her, and they started chatting with each other.

Suddenly, when they finished chatting, May found out that her daughter had gone already. May was oblivious to her daughter's absence because she was constantly playing on her phone.

When she finally remembered Macy was missing, she felt uneasy and worried. She was yelling Macy's name when she saw a security guard who was holding Macy's hand and looking around.

Finally, they reunited. Macy was crying while May hugged her. This story reminds us to be careful when managing our responsibilities.

6A Hui Chun Hoi, Eric

May Won't Do It Again!

Yesterday, May was watching TV when her mum said, 'It's twelve o'clock now. You must go to bed instantly!'

May rebutted, 'I don't think so; I think watching TV is more interesting than going to sleep.'

May's mum said, 'You are very mischievous!'

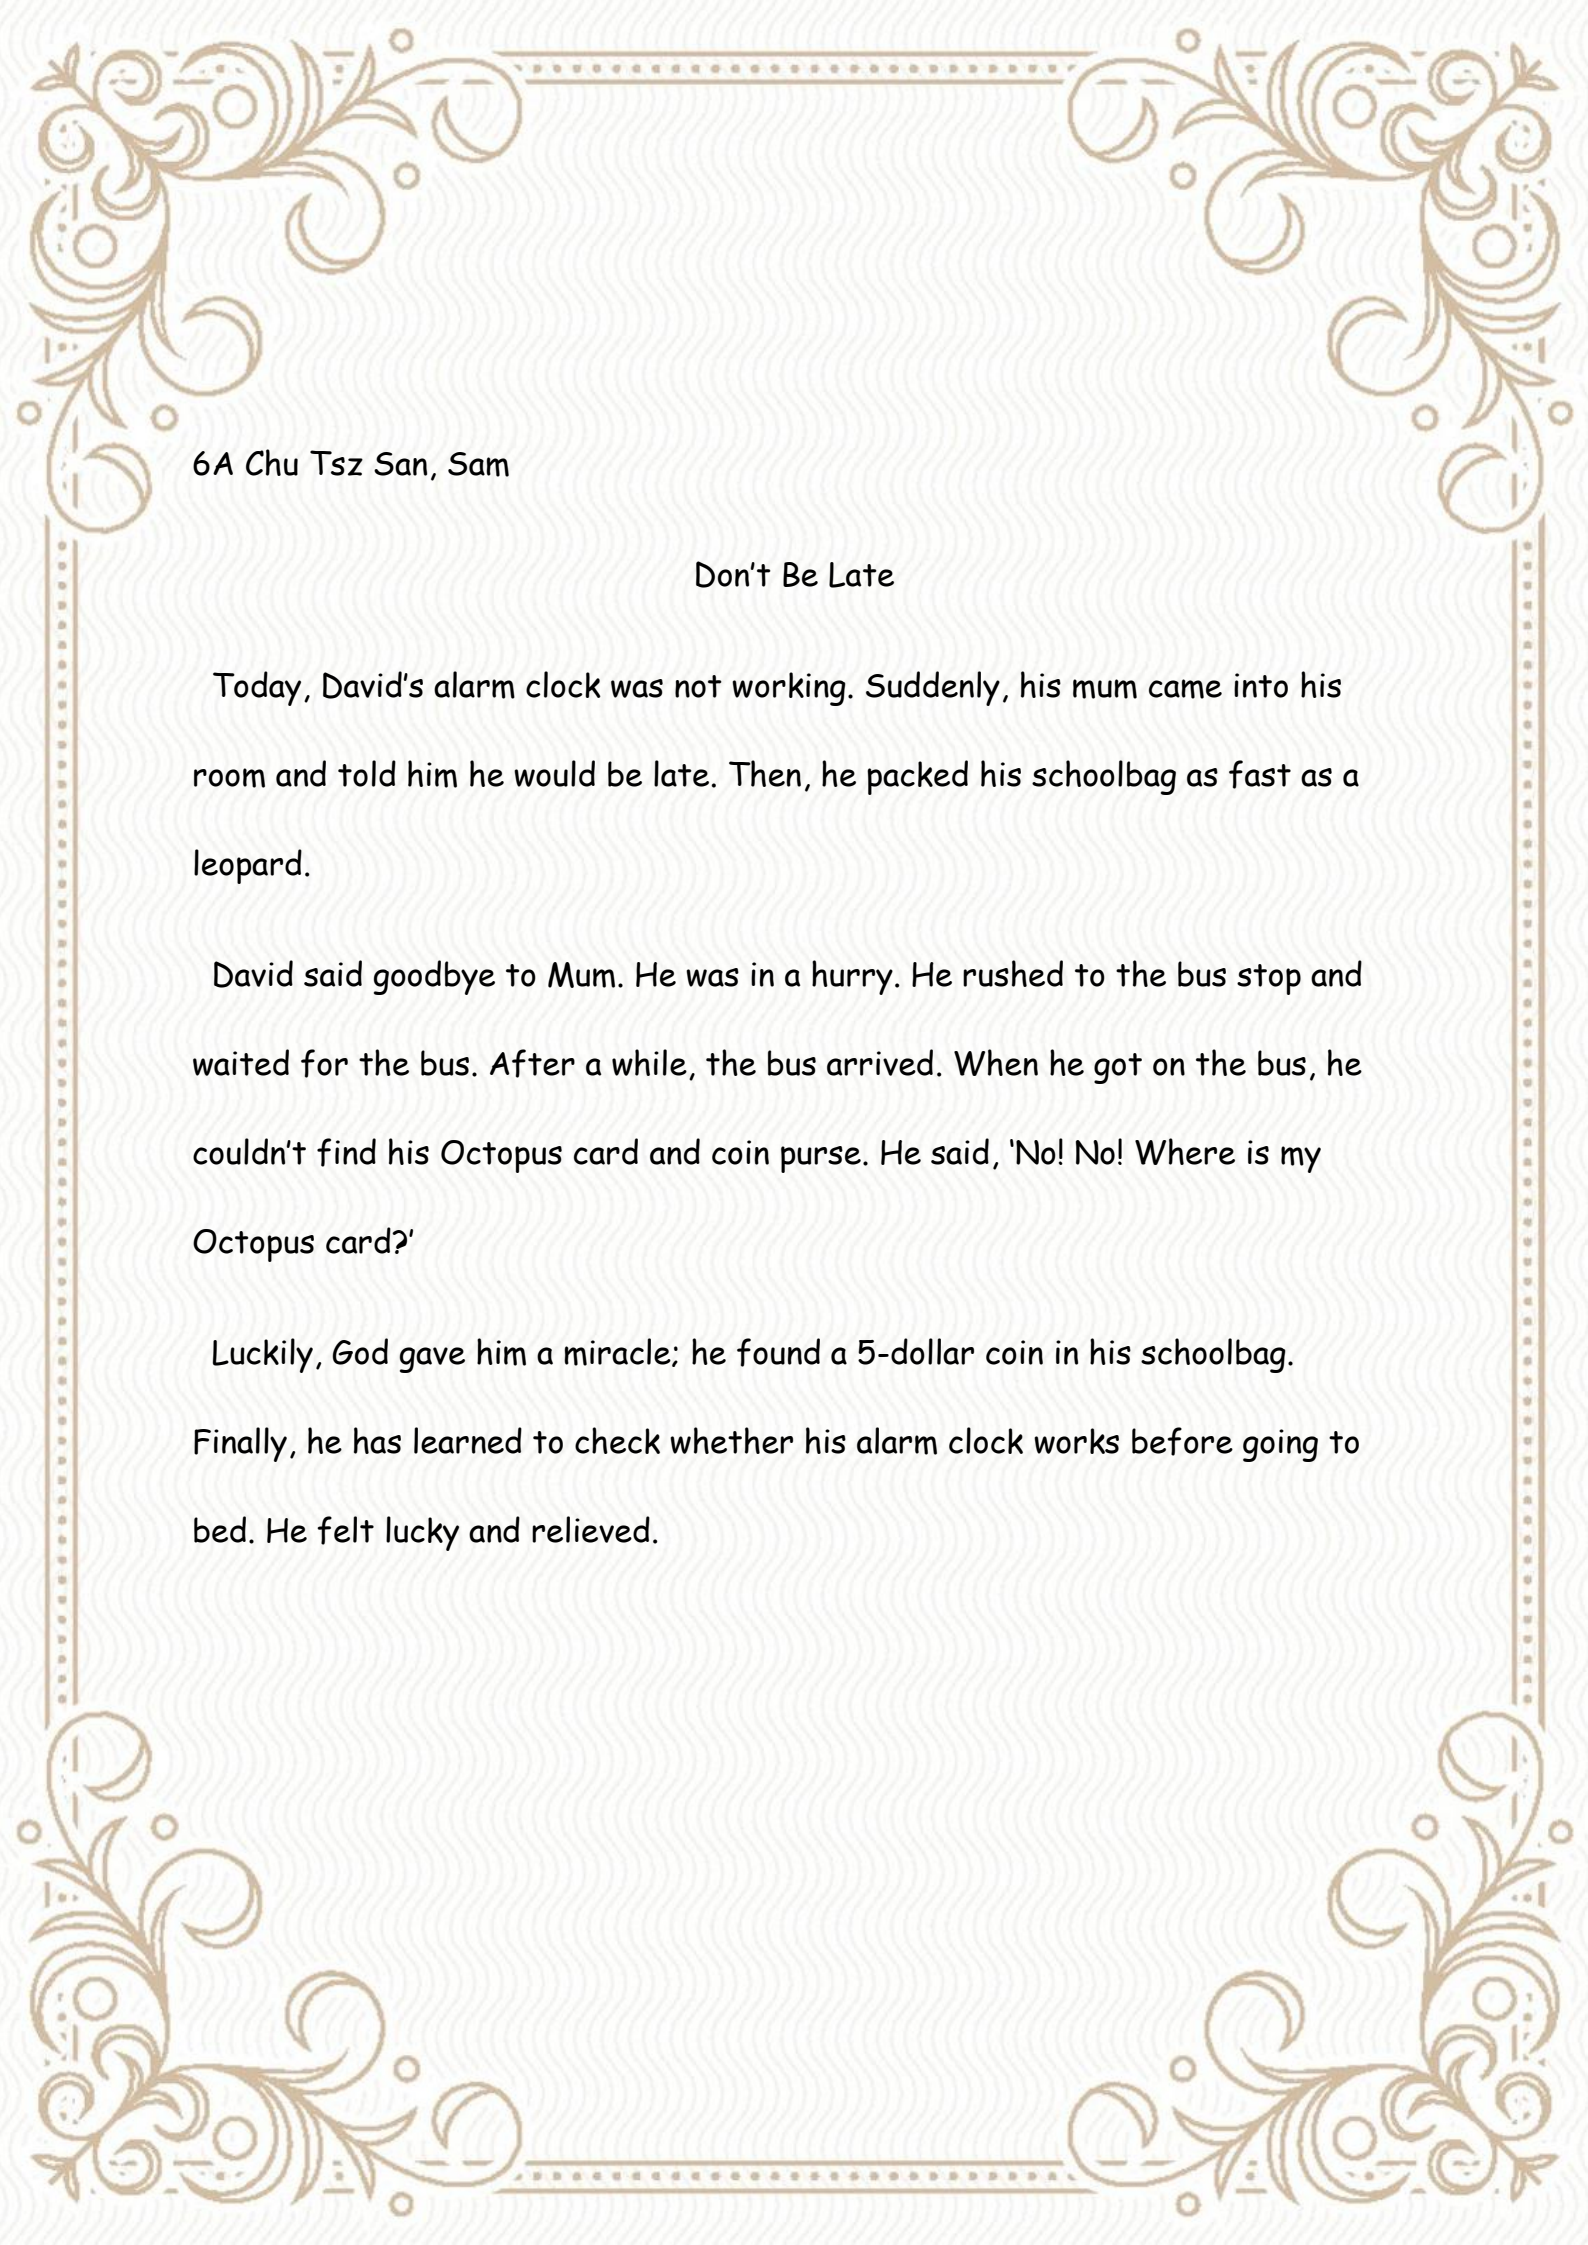

In today's English lesson, May suddenly fell asleep; her teacher went to her and woke her up. Then, the teacher asked May to step out of the classroom and talked to her outside. The teacher was furious and asked May to see her at recess.

During recess, the teacher said, 'Why did you sleep in the English lesson today?'

'I went to bed at one o'clock today...' May replied, feeling guilty.

'I'm glad you can honestly explain the reason. Please go to bed early next time.' May nodded.

Finally, May always goes to bed at nine o'clock. She won't sleep during the lesson again!

6A Chu Tsz San, Sam

Don't Be Late

Today, David's alarm clock was not working. Suddenly, his mum came into his room and told him he would be late. Then, he packed his schoolbag as fast as a leopard.

David said goodbye to Mum. He was in a hurry. He rushed to the bus stop and waited for the bus. After a while, the bus arrived. When he got on the bus, he couldn't find his Octopus card and coin purse. He said, 'No! No! Where is my Octopus card?'

Luckily, God gave him a miracle; he found a 5-dollar coin in his schoolbag. Finally, he has learned to check whether his alarm clock works before going to bed. He felt lucky and relieved.

6A Cheung Kai Fung, James

English Exam

Initially, May felt pitiful as she watched her classmates prepare for the English test. She had been so busy playing video games the night before that she completely forgot to study. As the clock ticked closer to 9:00 a.m., her anxiety grew.

When the teacher announced it was time for the test, May's heart raced. She looked around and saw her friends confidently writing the answers. She couldn't believe she had fallen asleep during the review session!

Finally, May took a deep breath and opened the test paper. She remembered a few things and wrote down whatever came to mind, hoping for the best.

Although she felt worried, she completed the test.

6A Hung Shing Wai, Leo

Careless Mother

Today was a sunny morning. There were no clouds in the sky. Mandy went to the park with her mother. They were all over the moon. When Mandy played on the swing, her mother was talking with her friend. Mandy was having a great time herself. Normally, Mandy stayed close by, but recently, she had become more mischievous and occasionally walked around on her own.

When Mum was done chatting, she noticed that Mandy was missing. Mum became very flustered and upset. She immediately looked around for Mandy.

Finally, Mandy walked back to the park. Only then did Mum realize that she had gone to the toilet. Mum breathed a sigh of relief. Mum told Mandy that from now on if she needs to use the washroom, she should let her know first.

6A Ng Kai Yan, Kingsley

A Fun Day

Yesterday was a sunny day. Zoey's mother and Zoey went to Sha Tin Park around 2 p.m. Zoey was very excited since she hasn't been to the park in a long time.

Next, Zoey was playing on the swing. Zoey's mother saw Zoey's teacher, Ms Candy. 'Hi!' said Ms Candy. They were busy chatting.

After that, Zoey's mother was very distressed when she couldn't find Zoey. She immediately looked for Zoey everywhere in the park. However, Zoey wasn't there. Zoey's mother felt distressed since she thought that Zoey was lost or that someone could have taken Zoey away.

Finally, Zoey's mother found out that Zoey was buying ice cream. Zoey's mother was furious since Zoey had gone to the ice-cream truck without letting her know. Zoey felt regretful for not letting her mother know where she was going. This story teaches us the importance of not leaving our parents without letting them know.

6A Choi Siu Hin, Jimmy

Sleeping During the Test

Last night, I watched the football match at 11 o'clock. I was not able to wake up when the alarm rang and went to school late in the morning.

During the English test, I slept. I only completed half of the test. After the test, the teacher called me to go to the teacher's room. The teacher said, 'Do you know why I have asked you to come here?'

'No, I don't know why,' I replied.

The teacher answered, 'You were sleeping during the test.'

I said, 'Oh no!'

The teacher said, 'Luckily, you got at least 60 marks on the test.'

Finally, I have learned to sleep early every night. I will not make mistakes again.

6A Yeung Ho Tik, Hugo

Ben's Busy Morning

Yesterday, Ben played video games until 2:00 a.m., so he slept in. When he woke up and looked at the clock, it was 7:50 a.m. He tidied his school bag as fast as lightning and went out. He said goodbye to his mother and hurried to the lift.

When he was waiting for the bus, he looked at his watch and exclaimed. 'It is 7:55 a.m. now!' I will be late for school.' Ben was distressed. Luckily, the bus arrived soon. When he got on the bus, he looked for his Octopus card and coin purse and realized that they were at home. He felt so flustered.

Suddenly, a person ran up to him. It was Ben's mother, and she had his Octopus card and coin purse. She gave them to Ben, and he felt grateful, which helped him arrive at school on time.

Finally, this story teaches us that we must pack our things very carefully and not lose anything.

6A Chan Hoi Yeung, Zaviz

Zoey Got Lost

Last Sunday, Zoey and her mom went to the park near their home. She got excited when she saw the swing; she asked, 'Mom, can I go on the swing?'

'Yes, of course, why not?' Her mom replied.

While Zoey was playing on the swing, her mom saw her own friend, so she started to talk to her. At once, Zoey heard the sound of an ice-cream truck, so she ran to it and ordered an ice cream. Suddenly, her mom realized that Zoey was not on the swing. At last, she found Zoey eating ice cream on the bench. She was furious and said, 'The ice-cream man could have kidnapped you! Never do this ever again! Ok?'

'Yes ma'am, I won't do it again. Just don't yell at me, thank you.' Zoey replied. Zoey felt upset and thought that Mum was mean for shouting at her. Finally, they went home together. Through this experience, Zoey has learned to never leave mom's sight without letting her know. Mum has learned to pay more attention to Zoey.

6A Yu Yat Hei, Otto

Kelly Went Missing

In the afternoon, Grandma decided to take Kelly to the park. Kelly was excited. She rushed to the park as fast as a cheetah.

Then, Kelly was playing on the swing while her grandma was talking with a friend. Suddenly, Kelly ran to an ice-cream truck that attracted her.

After that, Kelly's grandma finally realized Kelly was gone. She immediately went looking for Kelly. Her grandma felt regretful and said, 'I should have just looked after Kelly.'

In the end, Kelly's grandma felt upset after finding Kelly for four hours. Kelly eventually came to her grandma by herself. Kelly apologized, but her grandma said, 'No, I am the one who is supposed to say sorry.' She explained everything. Kelly and her grandma forgave each other.

6A Lam Ho Long, Collin

Grandma and Susan's Day at the Park

Yesterday morning, Susan and Grandma went to Sha Tin Park. When they arrived at the park, Susan was very excited. She said, "Grandma, I want to play on the swing!"

"Okay, but you can only play for three minutes," Grandma replied.

While Susan was on the swing, Mrs Chan, who was Grandma's friend, arrived. Grandma then talked to Mrs Chan.

When Mrs Chan left, Grandma couldn't find Susan. She was very distressed and furious because she had been too busy talking with Mrs Chan. She felt regretful for not keeping an eye on Susan.

Finally, Susan suddenly touched Grandma's shoulders, and then they went home together.

In the end, Susan and Grandma learned the importance of paying attention to each other, especially in busy or crowded places.

6A Chan Lok Tung, Curtis

Bella Went Missing

One day, Grandma took Bella to buy groceries. But Bella stopped at the playground's gate. She asked, 'Can I go play in the playground, please?'

Then Grandma said, 'You can only play on the swings, okay?' Bella replied quickly, then zoomed to the swings.

After a few minutes, Grandma's friend was passing by. She saw Grandma, so she walked towards her to have a nice chat with her. Grandma was so distracted by chatting that she didn't realize Bella had left.

After the chat, she was worried and furious. She looked for her everywhere. She checked everywhere except the pond, so she rushed towards there and found her playing with the turtles. She told Bella never to leave without a message. She agreed and apologized to Grandma.